

TRAILS

SUPERSTITION WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 170 miles of “system” trails serving the Superstition Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief words are in order about the following trail:

Campaign Trail 256: 8.1 miles long. A very scenic but little-used trail. Parallels Campaign Creek and then climbs over to the West Fork of Pinto Creek. Elevation: 3,250 - 5,250 feet. Termini: Campaign TH, and Trail 212 at Oak Flat.

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
